Report 1:

Resolution to Adopt Community Eligibility Provision (CEP) Affirmation

Mr. Brian Mitchell was present to address the Board. Mr. Mitchell explained under the CEP all students within the district would be eligible for a free breakfast and lunch each day. He provided details about regarding the anticipated benefits of this program. The program can be cancelled at any time and Watertown Central Schools are part of this program. This would allow easier access to food for students, fiscal gains for the meal program, may have an impact on attendance and may increase participation numbers of students.

Moved By: C. Lalonde

Supported By: P. Luckie

RESOLVED: Having the approval of the Superintendent of Schools, the Board of Education of the Ogdensburg City School District does hereby adopt the Community Eligibility Provision (CEP) Affirmation and approve submission of the CEP Application, this 10th day of August 2020.

Report 6:

First Review and Discussion of Proposed Ogdensburg City School District 2020-2021
District Wide School Re-Opening Plan

Mr. Kendall and Mrs. Kelly addressed questions and concerns from the Board. The district opted to use a phased hybrid reopening schedule. The students will be separated into two groups and will attend 5 in person days and 5 online days on varying schedules.

Parents have the option to choose fully online learning for their child(ren). The 9 period schedule will be kept for the middle/high school students and schedules will be provided to parents of elementary school age by their teachers.

Mrs. Testani rose the issue of faculty tracing. She will be connecting with Mr. Kendall to provide some additional information based on current tracing done within the public health system.

The school is unable to test any students, faculty or staff. All potential cases must be reported to the NYS Department of Health and guidance will be given to those involved.
